

Becoming BYU

Student Success Principles

Christlike Ministering and Accountability

- Seek spiritual guidance to care for individual students
- Use data and revelation to inspire institutional and programmatic adjustments for student success
- Measure progress in helping each student achieve divine potential

Covenant Belonging and Relationships

- Counsel together to proactively coordinate a comprehensive plan for each student
- Link students with peers, faculty, and employees to create a covenant community
- Serve each other with understanding of God's divine design for our lives

Inspiring Learning and Support

- Employ gospel methodology and model Christlike virtues in teaching, advising, and support
- Increase experiential learning opportunities that lead to inspiration and revelation
- Using gospel methodology, provide access to comprehensive individual support and learning resources
